

Parliament's watchdog

ACROSS

3 The _____ of Dunedin is around 110,000 (194,000 regionally).

4 The Dunedin City Council and the Otago Regional Council carried out a telephone and _____ survey of ratepayers, in April 2007.

8 The Trust's chairperson was related to someone who owned land on the proposed stadium site. This is called a _____. (8, 2, 8)

11 Opponents of the project liked the idea of a new stadium but argued it should be funded by the _____, that is, by companies and not through rates (7, 6).

12 The Trust's feasibility report included an option to _____ (improve) Carisbrook Stadium.

DOWN

1 Winning the right to host the 2011 Rugby _____ Cup meant there would be responsibilities like providing world-class facilities for games.

2 Surveys found the Dunedin _____, that is, the people, did not support council funding of the project to the level of $91 million.

5 As a last attempt to stop the project, opponents later took the case to the Court of _____.

6 Opponents argued that some ratepayers couldn't afford a rates _____.

7 Opponents filed a case with the _____ Court to have the stadium development stopped.

9 A _____ was set up to investigate different options for a stadium. It was chaired by a prominent Dunedin businessman.

10 Someone who owns a house or property, who pays money to the local city or district council.