

Parliament's watchdog

ACROSS

1 TWOA didn't ask for quotes from suppliers. It selected _____ in a non-competitive way.

3 In 2004, TWOA received $156 million in government _____.

6 Public sector organisations receive public money from the Government, so they must be _____ to the public.

8 Jobs at TWOA were not always _____.

10 TWOA's business decisions were often made in an _____ and oral way, with few written records.

12 The OAG found that TWOA had been operating like a small _____ company, rather than the large public organisation it had become.

13 TWOA is a Māori-based _____ education institution.

DOWN

2 When someone's private interests affect their ability to make fair and objective decisions, this is called a _____.
(8, 2, 8)

4 Public organisations should plan, assess, and authorise major spending, get several _____ from suppliers, and clearly document their assessment of final spending decisions.

5 After overseas trips, TWOA often didn't attempt to _____ expenses (ensure that final costs matched the receipts).

7 Supporters of TWOA pointed to a clash of _____ values as being the problem.

9 TWOA said spending was planned and assessed. However, this was done _____, as was customary in Māori culture.

11 Whanaungatanga.